

27 February 2025

Continuous Disclosure Policy

1. Introduction

- 1.1. Clean TeQ Water Limited (the “Company”) has adopted this Continuous Disclosure Policy (the “Policy”), which describes the internal processes designed to ensure that it complies with the continuous disclosure obligations on the stock exchanges on which its securities are listed.
- 1.2. This Policy applies to all executive and non-executive directors, officers, employees, and consultants of the Company and its controlled entities (the “Group”) (collectively, “Employees”).

2. Company’s Disclosure Obligations

- 2.1. The Company has listings on the Australian Securities Exchange (“ASX”). The Company's securities are quoted as ordinary shares on the ASX.
- 2.2. The Company must, subject to the disclosure exceptions set out in the applicable listing rules, immediately notify the market of any information or development related to its business that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of its securities.
- 2.3. The term "immediately" in this context means "promptly and without delay". Disclosure is made by making an announcement to the ASX.
- 2.4. Information will be taken to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities if it would be likely to influence investors in deciding whether to buy or sell the Company's securities. This type of information is referred to as "price-sensitive information".
- 2.5. Materiality is assessed using measures appropriate to the Company and having regard to the examples given by ASX in ASX Listing Rule 3.1.
- 2.6. All Employees should notify the Company Secretary if they consider there is material information which requires disclosure and are encouraged to approach the Company Secretary if they have any queries about what information should be disclosed to the market.

3. Exceptions to Disclosure of Information

- 3.1. Certain material information does not need to be disclosed if each of the following exceptions listed in (a), (b) and (c) are satisfied in relation to the information:
 - (a) one or more of the following five (5) conditions apply:
 - (i) it would be a breach of the law to disclose the information; or
 - (ii) the information concerns an incomplete proposal or negotiation; or
 - (iii) the information comprises matters of supposition or is insufficiently definite to warrant disclosure; or
 - (iv) the information is generated for internal management purposes of the Company; or

- (v) the information is a trade secret; and
- (b) the information is confidential and the ASX has not formed the view that the information has ceased to be confidential; and
- (c) a reasonable person would not expect the information to be disclosed.

3.2. If certain material information is being withheld from disclosure on the basis that it is confidential, then it is important that all necessary steps are taken to ensure that the information remains confidential. This may include ensuring that it is not disclosed to third parties except on the basis of a written confidentiality undertaking.

4. Company Secretary

4.1. The board of directors of the Company (the “Board”) has appointed the Company Secretary as the person responsible for general administration of this Policy.

4.2. The Company Secretary's responsibilities include:

- (a) ensuring that announcements are communicated to the ASX in accordance with applicable regulatory requirements and this Policy;
- (b) maintaining a register of announcements made to the market;
- (c) reviewing Board papers and other information referred to the Company Secretary for events that the Company Secretary considers may give rise to disclosure obligations;
- (d) communicating with ASX about general matters concerning the ASX Listing Rules (in accordance with Listing Rule 12.6) including in relation to matters of disclosure, and co-ordinating communications.
- (e) ensuring (using reasonable endeavours) announcements are factual and are expressed in a clear and objective manner that allows investors to assess the impact of the information when making investment decisions;
- (f) co-ordinating education and training within the Company about its disclosure obligations and this Policy as required from time to time; and
- (g) periodically monitoring the Company's disclosure processes and reporting and the effectiveness of this Policy.

4.3. The Company Secretary will also arrange (in conjunction with the Company's human resources function) for any significant amendments to this Policy to be notified to relevant Employees.

5. Authority to Authorise Announcements

5.1. Except as set out in the paragraphs below, the Chief Executive Officer, or the Chief Financial Officer, in conjunction with the Company Secretary, or a Non-Executive Director, have the authority to approve announcements to the market including the following:

- (a) substantial shareholder notices (approved by the relevant holder);
- (b) director interest notices (approved by the relevant Director);
- (c) company administration notices (such as Appendix 3Bs); and

(d) announcements pre-approved by the Board in substantially the form approved.

5.2. Proposed announcements to the market which:

- (a) are to include disclosure of a forecast or other forward-looking information; or
 - (b) relate to a matter that is material and strategically important to the Company (including announcements relating to the full-year or half-year reports),
- should be reviewed by the Directors in advance of being released to the market.

5.3. Even where paragraph 5.2 applies, the Board generally delegates the approval of announcements to the Chief Executive Officer.

5.4. The Chief Financial Officer or Company Secretary will generally circulate drafts of announcements to the Directors before they are released to the market.

5.5. All announcements to the market must be released to the ASX. Directors receive copies of all announcements promptly after they have been made.

6. Market Speculation and Rumours

6.1. In general, the Company does not respond to market speculation and rumours except where:

- (a) the speculation or rumours indicate that the subject matter is no longer confidential and therefore the relevant exception to disclosure no longer applies;
- (b) the ASX formally requests disclosure by the Company on the matter; or
- (c) the Company considers that it is appropriate to make a disclosure in the circumstances.

6.2. If an Employee becomes aware of any market speculation or rumours of which the Company Secretary may not be aware, these should be reported to the Company Secretary immediately.

7. Trading Halts

7.1. In order to facilitate an orderly, fair and informed market it may be necessary to request a trading halt from the ASX, where:

- (a) there are indications that market sensitive information may have leaked ahead of an announcement and it is having, or is likely to have when trading resumes, a material effect on the price or traded volumes of Company's securities; or
- (b) the Company has been asked by the ASX to provide information to correct or prevent a false market; or
- (c) another circumstance has arisen that has been assessed as market sensitive, and in each case, the Company requires more time to prepare, approve and issue an announcement, or where the market is not trading, the Company will not be in a position to give an announcement to the ASX prior to the resumption of trading.

7.2. No Employee is authorised to initiate a request for a trading halt other than through the Company Secretary, who must obtain approval from the Chief Executive Officer before making the request. If Chief Executive Officer is unavailable, the Company Secretary must obtain the approval of the Chairperson, or if the Chairperson is unavailable, another Non-Executive Director.

8. Authorised spokespersons

8.1. The only persons authorised to make public statements on behalf of the Group are:

- (a) the Chief Executive Officer;
- (b) the Chairperson;
- (c) the Chief Financial Officer; or
- (d) any person who has the prior approval of the Chief Executive Officer.

8.2. Those persons may only clarify information that the Company has publicly released and must not comment on price-sensitive information that has not been released to the market.

9. Analyst and Investor Briefings

9.1. The Company may conduct briefings with analysts and investors from time to time to discuss matters concerning the Company. In these cases, the following protocols will apply:

- (a) No price-sensitive information will be disclosed at these briefings (including in response to any questions asked at the briefing) unless it has been previously or is simultaneously released to the market.
- (b) If price-sensitive information is inadvertently disclosed, it will immediately be released to the market.
- (c) Any presentation materials to be given to investors and analysts at a briefing will be released to the market and posted on the Company's website. This should occur before the information is presented at the briefing.
- (d) A record of all meetings and briefings with analysts or investors may be kept, including confirmation that no price-sensitive information was disclosed.

10. Review of Reports by Analysts

10.1. The Group is not responsible for and does not endorse, reports by analysts commenting on the Company. The Group does not incorporate reports of analysts in its corporate information, including its website (this also extends to hyperlinks to websites of analysts).

10.2. Where requested to do so, the Company may review research reports by analysts but will confine its comments to factual matters and material previously disclosed to the market.

11. Website

11.1. All company announcements will be posted on the Company's website immediately after they are released to the market.

12. Breaches

12.1. Breaches of this Policy will be viewed seriously and may lead to disciplinary action being taken against the relevant Employee. Any breach of this Policy will be reported to the Audit & Risk Committee or to the Board.

13. Questions

13.1. Any questions about the Company's continuous disclosure obligations or this Policy should be referred to the Company Secretary.

14. Amendments

14.1. The Company Secretary may review this Policy once every 2 years and report to the Board any changes they consider should be made.

14.2. This Policy may be amended from time to time by resolution of the Board.

14.3. The Policy will be available on the Company's website within a reasonable time after any such updates or amendments have been approved.

15. Approved and Adopted

15.1. This Policy was reviewed, approved and adopted by the Board on 28 April 2021 and subsequently revised on 27 February 2025.